Eat the culinary word game Delicious Words 2! Did you know that in 2015 there were more than 227 million blog posts in the blogosphere (what we bloggers affectionately call our little piece of the internet)? In 2019, these estimates are even higher, some estimate more than 500 million! It's hard to say how many of these blogs were food blogs, but we can guess there's a ton of them. You can learn some new cooking techniques and discover new food blogs with a fun game called Delicious Words 2. Have we teamed up with mobile game developer Second Gear Games to put together a word game that has a selection of our best photos and delicious recipes in order to please your eyes and challenge your brain? Playing the game is the best way to learn! It is scientifically proven that you learn better and faster by having fun. If you're a home chef, or just someone who loves everything about food, there's a wide range of resources out there that you can use to learn new recipes, cooking and presentation tips and nutritional information. What this game adds to the mix is a bit of fun and a format that is uncommon for food blogs: recipes as a word and find the difference of puzzles. Blogger partnersSecond Gear Games and Skillets and Pots would like to thank all the food bloggers who have agreed to take part in this game by introducing their unique and delicious recipes. Here's a list of amazing food bloggers! Our special thanks: 500 Spatulas, Babaganos, Chipa by a dozen, Delicious on pennies, End fork, La Bouffe food, Bake camera lights!, Limitless Allergies, My Kitchen Diaspora, Nerdy Mamma, OH, Things We'll Do!, Ramona Kitchen, Skillets and Pots, Fiery Vegetarian, Fit Cookies, Veggie Fun Kitchen, and Whole Food Belies. Discover Don't just take our word for it. The game is free to download and play. It is available for Apple and Android phones and tablets. You can play the game in any of 5 languages: English, French, Spanish, German or Russian. Practice the culinary dictionary in the new language of your choice, or simply play your native language for fun. Each puzzle references the original blog with a recipe provided by our contributors.
